

CORES AND TUBES

T Series

Copely has the capability to manufacture a huge range of cores and tubes for numerous applications. Made in the UK – you can trust that the cores and tubes have been made from higher quality materials, under better conditions, and with superior workmanship to those imported from Asia. We partner with our OEM customers to ensure our tubing offers the best performance in its intended application.

Key Features:

- Tubing can be supplied in cut lengths.
- Can be manufactured from a wide range of materials.
- Many standard tube sizes available – bespoke sizes available on request.
- In-house tooling and design facility to suit customer applications.
- Production facility audited by a leading medical supplier.
- Medical grade extruded profiles available.

Materials:

- PP (Polypropylene)
- LDPE (Low-density polyethylene)
- HDPE (High-density polyethylene)

Available in recycled HDPE

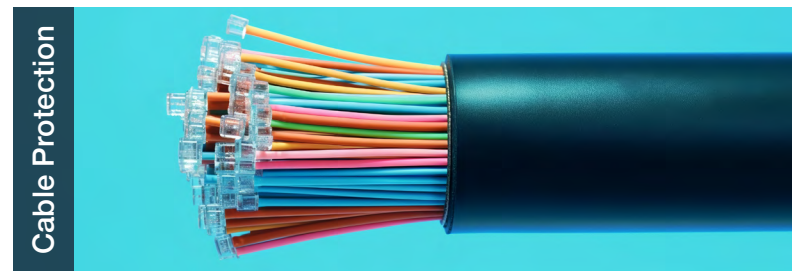

Custom sizes and colours available on request
subject to minimum order quantities

Copely

1. Made from PP, LDPE or HDPE

Applications:

- Packaging – Rigid cores for winding tape and bandages.
- Other – Rigid plastic cores for winding a wide range of material options.
- Caravan drainage
- High voltage cable protection
- Large scale food rollers
- General industrial

